MARK H. WITTSTADT and GERARD WM.
WITTSTADT, JR.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

ROBERT H. HOSCH, JR., BUTLER &
HOSCH, P.A., H. EDWARD BICKERS, JR.,
and DEFAULT CONSULTING GROUP, INC.,

Defendants.

Civil Action No. 1:16-CV-02251-CCB

DEFENDANT ROBERT H. HOSCH'S ANSWER AND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES TO PLAINTIFFS' COMPLAINT

Defendant Robert H. Hosch ("Hosch" or "Defendant"), by counsel, hereby submits his Answer and Affirmative Defenses in response to Plaintiffs Mark H. Wittstadt and Gerard Wm. Wittstadt, Jr.'s ("Wittstadts" or "Plaintiffs") Complaint.

Defendant answers below the allegations in Plaintiffs' Complaint in paragraphs that correspond to the numbered paragraphs in Plaintiffs' Complaint, without waiving the subsequent affirmative defenses.

I. PARTIES

1. Defendant is without knowledge or information sufficient to admit or deny the allegations contained in paragraph 1 of the Complaint, and therefore denies them.

2. Defendant is without knowledge or information sufficient to admit or deny the allegations contained in paragraph 2 of the Complaint, and therefore denies them.

3. Defendant admits that he is an individual who resides in Dallas, Texas. To the extent the allegations of Paragraph 3 constitute legal conclusions, they require neither an admission nor a denial. To the extent an admission or denial is required, Defendant denies the remaining allegations of Paragraph 3.

4. Defendant admits that during relevant times, Butler & Hosch, P.A. (“B&H”) was a professional association organized under the laws of the State of Florida and was registered to do business in the State of Maryland. Defendant denies that its principal offices were at 9409 Philadelphia Road, Rosedale, Maryland 21237. To the extent the allegations of Paragraph 4 constitute legal conclusions, they require neither an admission nor a denial. To the extent that an admission or denial is required, Defendant denies the remaining allegations of Paragraph 4.

5. Defendant admits that H. Edward Bickers is an individual who resides in Dallas, Texas. To the extent the allegations of Paragraph 5 constitute legal conclusions, they require neither an admission nor a denial. To the extent an admission or denial is required, Defendant denies the remaining allegations of Paragraph 5.

6. Defendant admits that during relevant times, Default Consulting Group, Inc. (“DCG”) was a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Florida and was registered to do business in the State of Maryland. Defendant denies that DCG’s principal offices were at 9409 Philadelphia Road, Rosedale, Maryland 21237. To the extent the allegations of Paragraph 6 constitute legal conclusions, they require neither an admission nor a denial. To the extent that an admission or denial is required, Defendant denies the remaining allegations of Paragraph 6.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

7. The allegations contained in paragraph 7 of the Complaint constitute conclusions of law to which no response is required, but if a response is required, Defendant admits them.

COUNT TWO

64.-72. Count Two of the Complaint is not directed at Defendant Hosch. Therefore, Defendant Hosch is not required to respond to the allegations contained in Count Two. If a response is required, Defendant denies the allegations contained in Count Two, paragraphs 64-72 of the Complaint.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Defendant admits only that Plaintiffs demand the relief set forth in the “WHEREFORE” paragraph identified as (a) through (c), but denies that Plaintiffs are entitled to any such relief contained therein.

JURY TRIAL DEMAND

Defendant admits that Plaintiffs demand a jury trial, but denies that Plaintiffs are entitled to one.

To the extent not expressly admitted above, Defendant denies the allegations contained in the Complaint.

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

FIRST DEFENSE

Plaintiffs’ Complaint fails to state a claim upon which this Court may grant relief.

SECOND DEFENSE

Plaintiffs’ Complaint is barred by the doctrines estoppel, waiver, and/or laches.

THIRD DEFENSE

Plaintiffs’ Complaint, in whole and in part, is barred by the doctrine of unclean hands.

FOURTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs’ negligence and negligent misrepresentation claims are barred because Defendant, and anyone acting on his behalf, did not knowingly make any misrepresentations to Plaintiffs surrounding the facts alleged in the Complaint.

FIFTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs’ negligence and negligent misrepresentation claims are barred because Defendant, and anyone acting on his behalf, did not intend to defraud Plaintiffs.

SIXTH DEFENSE

Defendant is informed and believes that further investigation and discovery will reveal, and on that basis allege, that Defendant's alleged representations, if any, were not knowingly false when made.

SEVENTH DEFENSE

Defendant alleges that Plaintiffs' negligence and negligent misrepresentation claims are barred to the extent that Plaintiff did not reasonably rely on any alleged statements made to Plaintiffs by Defendant.

EIGHTH DEFENSE

Defendant alleges that the Complaint and each cause of action alleged therein are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrine of managerial immunity.

NINTH DEFENSE

Defendant is entitled to a set-off against Plaintiffs' claims for damages in the amount(s) that Plaintiffs did or could have earned through reasonable efforts and by seeking other employment.

TENTH DEFENSE

Any damages sustained by Plaintiffs were the result of intervening or superseding events, factors, occurrences or conditions. Such actions and inaction were in no way under Defendant's control or caused by Defendant and cannot result in liability to Defendant.

ELEVENTH DEFENSE

Defendant reserves the right to assert additional affirmative defenses as discovery proceeds.

WHEREFORE, Defendant prays for judgment against Plaintiffs as follows:

1. For an order dismissing Plaintiffs' claims with prejudice, and entering judgment in favor of Defendant and against Plaintiffs;
2. For all costs, disbursements, and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by Defendant in connection with the defense of this matter; and
3. For any other such relief as the Court in the exercise of its discretion deems to be just and proper.
